INTERNATIONAL PAVILIONS AT FHM 2017

PHILIPPINES PAVILION

HALL 10, MANDARIN ORIENTAL HOTEL BALLROOM

Fueled by its agricultural economy, the Philippines remains steadfast in its investments focused on strengthening and expanding the food-based sectors. The Department of Agriculture is the government agency responsible for the promotion of agricultural development and provides inclusive support to food producers and processors from production up to marketing of their products.

With new emerging markets and innovating business trends and technologies brought about by globalisation and the ASEAN Economic Community, they are grabbing every opportunity to extend their products' market reach and source out information to gear up their SMEs.

In FHM 2017, the Philippines will be bringing a wide range of globally-competitive Filipino food products that are halal-certified. They are offering products from promising enterprises with reputable brands that cater to the consumers' health and wellness. These include banana chips, coated peanuts, and herbal teas like turmeric, ginger brews, fresh coco water, coco meat, coco chips, coconut balsamic vinegar, lemon grass tea, citrus concentrate, tropical fruit jams, jellies and marmalades, calamansi concentrate etc. will be displayed at the Philippines pavilion.

So come and visit the Philippines Pavilion located at Hall 10, Grand Ballroom, Mandarin Oriental Hotel in FHM 2017!
